Readmission Form

Submit this form if you wish to resume a degree program interrupted by absence of one or more terms (not counting the summer term). For work leading to another degree in the same department or to a degree in another department, contact department and submit a new application.

Step 1: Student

Submit completed form directly to your home department for review by email. If reapplying after an absence of one or more academic years submit on paper, and include a $75 application fee, payable by check or money order to MIT Graduate Admissions. This fee is not refundable.

Step 2: Department

Department will review, and send completed form by email to odge@mit.edu or on paper to Building 35-338 (if check is included). Department will communicate with student about registration procedures and requirements.

Step 3: Office of Graduate Education (OGE)

OGE will enter approved application into the admissions database (Grade20) to initiate reactivation of student record.
